JUS/ENGL/MENA 348
7wk2, In Person
Mon/Wed, 10 am - 12 pm
Spring 2024

Israeli Fiction and Poetry
Love, War, and Identity in Israel Literature

The course provides an introduction to major trends in Israeli fiction, poetry, and literary criticism. It also provides a historical background on ideological context and cultural identity formation by learning about Israeli literary accomplishments beginning in the 1880's and ending in the 1990's.

Dr. Anat Balint is the Inaugural Plevan Chair for Modern Israel Studies in The Arizona Center for Judaic Studies
Email: balint@arizona.edu

For more information please contact Jackie Schmidt, Outreach Coordinator at jan1@arizona.edu or visit our website at www.judaic.arizona.edu