

Modern Hebrew at UArizona

התוכנית לשפה העברית
The Hebrew Language Program

Modern Hebrew is the core of the Judaic Studies major, but students of any major can enroll in Hebrew classes to fulfill the UA's second language requirement.

We offer elementary, intermediate, and advanced levels of Modern Hebrew.

Elementary Modern Hebrew (5 units each)

JUS 103A (5 units) and JUS 103B (5 units) are offered in fall and spring semesters respectively.

JUS 103A: Intensive introduction to basic oral skills, reading and writing to accomplish simple conversation and read easy Hebrew with comprehension.

JUS 103B: Intensive introduction to establish foundation for beginning fluency in conversation, reading and writing.

Intermediate Modern Hebrew (5 units each)

JUS 203A (5 units) and JUS 203B (5 units) are offered in fall and spring semesters respectively.

JUS 203A and JUS 203B: Instruction to achieve moderate fluency in conversation, reading and writing.

Advanced Modern Hebrew (3 units each)

Successful completion of JUS303A (a grade of 'C' or above), is a prerequisite for enrollment in JUS 303B.

JUS 303A and 303B: Advanced instruction in modern Hebrew language and literature.

Elementary Modern Hebrew
JUS/MENA 103A and 103B
Ms. Naomi Tor
npresent@arizona.edu

Intermediate & Advanced Modern Hebrew
JUS/MENA 203A and 203B
JUS/MENA 303A and 303B
Ms. Rita Zohav
rzohav@arizona.edu

You may be eligible to place into a higher level Hebrew course if you have previous experience with the language. Contact Jackie Schmidt, Program Coordinator (jan1@arizona.edu), to be placed in the appropriate level of Hebrew.

<https://judaic.arizona.edu/modern-hebrew>